Dear Sir

I write you these few Lines by my Nephew David Her, to apprise you that I set out this Morning for Beaumaris N. Wales with two of my Nieces, Brother's Children, where I mean to remain for two Months constantly with them in order to watch over the eldest of them in a very bad State of health, and therefore, I doubt much whether the projected Plan of going to Ireland will succeed. I think once it would, and that if all things sh^d favor it, my rev^d Brother her father would be of the party, but "Men proposes & God disposes" and I have more reason to think now, than at that time, that it won't do. Should you go to Ireland about the 16th of June. You might stop at Beaumaris, which is about 25 miles from Holyhead where you embark, and my Niece Mrs. Archibald M^cCall & self, would be most happy to see you.

I called upon Mr. Adam Hodgson, but found that he had left his Quarters to be absent
The young ^{Woman} Lady of the House said for 3 Weeks. Should you wish to write to me again, direct to the Care of Arch. McCall Esqr. Exchange Court, Lin. C. or to me at Beave-
-maris Mrs. Lloyd

I am My Dear Sir, with sincere Regard

Your most Obedt.
Overy h^{ble} Servant
